

Reg. no 27

APPELLATION OF ORIGIN

Caviar of Kladovo

Description:

Caviar of Kladovo is produced from the spawn of beluga, sturgeon, stellate sturgeon and starlet. Caviar has no smell, a particular taste, consistency and humidity and belongs to the type “malossol”. Caviar from beluga has pearly glow of light grey to black color and the radius of the egg is from 3-4 mm. Caviar from sturgeon has light to dark brown and dark grey to almost black color, the radius of the egg is around 3 mm. Caviar from stellate sturgeon has from light to dark grey color with green reflection, radius of the egg is around 2mm. Caviar from starlet has green color, radius of an egg of around 1 mm.

Geographical area:

Flow of the river Danube IV, from 1075 to 845 km.