

Reg. no 51

APPELLATION OF ORIGIN

Honey from Homolje

Description:

The honey of Homolje is polyphloric honey that is produced once or at the maximum, twice a year and it is made in the conditions of modified stationary bee heaving of the home made bee Apis mellifera carnica in the relation up to 50% of the lime tree honey and more than 50% of the field honey. The intensity of color of the honey from Homolje varies from light to dark, the shades of color go from ocher yellow to orange to dark amber. The color of the honey is totally homogenous and the pigmentation is even. It smells like flowers, the taste is pleasantly archaic and the aroma is exceptionally pleasant. The honey is compact and has the natural characteristic to crystallize.

Geographical area:

Honey from Homolje is produced exclusively on the mountains of Homolje.